

Intermodal Container SCIF

United States

The Challenge

A U.S. Government agency needed a commercially transportable Mobile SCIF to process classified flight test data on spot for any test range in the Continental United States.

The Solution

Modular Genius provided a 40 ft. ruggedized shipping container that holds classified workspaces and conference area, as well as a classified equipment housing area with cipher locks. Eight workstations are equipped with both classified and unclassified computers.